ARTICLE II: Objectives and Status of Non-Profit

SECTION 1: Objectives

The Objectives of the INU Alumni Association (INUAA) are as follows:

1. To establish an eternal bond between the University and its family of alumni across national and international borders by engaging them in the University's commitment, vision and mission.
2. To promote professional, educational, and social interaction among alumni. Strengthening the relationship between alumni and the University.

3. To highlight the importance and role of organisations/businesses where the INU Alumni are rendering their valuable services.

4. To enhance mutually beneficial career-oriented interactions among the Alumni and the current students, e.g. Financial Aid, Mentoring, Corporate Trainings, Research & Development, Seminars, Job Fairs, Internship Drives, and Infrastructure Development, etc.

5. To keep the INU Alumni updated regarding the prevailing challenges, developments through annual/semi-annual reunions, fundraising weeks and other social events.

6. To bring the culture of giving back among those alumni members who are currently serving good and reputable organisations, as well as those members who have been getting benefits in their student life in the shape of fully funded need-based merit scholarships and study loans, etc.

7. To do all such other lawful things as are conducive or incidental to the attainment of the above objectives and/or beneficial to the interests of the Institute and its Alumni.

SECTION 2: Status of Non-Profit

The INUAA is a non-profit organisation. All members of the INUAA work voluntarily in furtherance of its objectives. INUAA shall work for the unification of INU alumni and build associations amongst themselves, the University, the students and the faculty.

ARTICLE III: Membership and Voting Rights

SECTION 1: Eligibility

i. INUAA membership includes all graduates of IQRA National University. For this constitution, an "alumnus" is a person who has received a degree through any Program of the University. Any such alumnus is automatically a member without the need for any further application, election, or enrollment.

ii. Membership is Non-Transferable.

iii. The faculty and administrative officers of all of INU shall be the ex officio members of the association and shall continue to be the members as long as they are on the strength of INU. The members shall be required to pay the prescribed membership fee to become a member.

iv. Students who have completed their degree but have not submitted their thesis or final projects will not be eligible to become members of INUAA. Students can only be eligible for INUAA membership once they have received clearance from their respective Program Coordinator, and the clearance will be checked by the Department/Section Concerned once the cards are being issued.

SECTION 2: Honorary Membership

Spouses, Parents, and employers of the INU alumni, as well as individuals who extended their noticeable support and services to the IQRA National University, are also eligible for honorary membership of INUAA. Honorary members may also be called associates of the Alumni. They shall not have the voting rights, and they shall not be eligible to contest the election of ECINUAA.

SECTION 3: Membership Fee

There shall be an annual non-refundable fee for membership in INUAA. All membership fees may be due by the end date of the first month of the year for which the membership is sought. Late membership requests will be charged a nominal late fee along with the annual membership fees. The amount of fees, including late fees, may be decided/changed by a majority vote during any meeting of the ECINUAA.

SECTION 4: Voting Rights

"IQRA National University Alumni Association" shall extend the right to vote to all of its paying members for the election of the officers and members of the ECINUAA or other related matters of INUAA. The voting power and interest of members in the association shall be equal. Voting on operational/professional matters will be restricted to the elected ECINUAA members only. Proxy voting shall be strictly prohibited.

SECTION 5: Rights to the Property

No members or elected officials of the "IQRA National University Alumni Association" shall have any right, claim, interest or title whatsoever in or to any property or assets, which the association may have or hereafter obtain. In case of or upon the winding up/dissolution of the Association, the authority in charge of the liquidation shall allocate any assets remaining after payment/discharge of all the Association's duties or obligations, to the IQRA National University, Pakistan's Students Scholarships Endowment Fund.

ARTICLE IV: General Body Meetings of Members (Re-Unions and Fundraising Events)

SECTION 1: General Body Annual Meetings of Members

The "IQRA National University Alumni Association" General Body should hold an annual Re-union event to be followed by a fundraising event with a gap of 12 months every year, for the fulfilment of its objectives as mentioned in Article II, Section 1.

SECTION 2: Notices for General Body Annual Meetings

An official meeting notice shall be issued by the General Secretary of the Association with the approval of the Vice Chancellor, and the same shall be circulated among the stakeholders by the General Secretary of the Association at least a month before the date of the scheduled meeting.

SECTION 3: Advertising of General Annual Meetings

The ECINUAA, in consultation with the Director of Marketing and International Linkages of INU, shall be responsible for all the marketing and outreach activities of the planned and notified general body meetings for members. All such events should be advertised in different newspapers of national and regional importance.

SECTION 4: Post Event Newsletter

The General Secretary of the ECINUAA, Director Marketing and International Linkages, and Director Career Development Center shall be responsible for the dissemination of the latest news, events coverage and achievement/success reports through a Post Event Newsletter, to all the active members of the Association.

SECTION 5: Retention of Membership

Each member must be in current status with the payment of the INUAA membership dues as set by the ECINUAA. All members should also maintain conduct that does not harm the good name and reputation of the INUAA and the IQRA National University.

SECTION 6: Termination of Membership

(i) Membership shall be automatically terminated if membership dues are not received by the

IQRA National University within thirty days of the beginning of the new administrative year, as mentioned in Article III, Section 4.

(ii) Membership shall be terminated by the majority vote of the Executive Committee for reasons, such as but not limited to, it deems a member's conduct to be harmful to the good name and the reputation of INUAA and the IQRA National University.

(iii) As a result of such action, the Executive Committee shall use reasonable efforts to communicate the committee's decision of termination to the terminated member. Such "written" notification shall include communicating to the terminated member by letter, facsimile and/or by electronic means.

ARTICLE V: General Elections and Executive Committee Meetings

SECTION 1: Governing Body

(i) The elected ECINUAA shall remain the supervising and governing body of the "IQRA National University Alumni Association" (IAA).

(ii) The Executive Committee of the Alumni Association shall be chaired and authorised by the Vice Chancellor of INU, to govern, administer, monitor & evaluate the progress, performance & practices of INUAA.

(iii) The President and all other Elected Officers of the Executive Committee shall perform their duties as per their job descriptions and are required to actively participate in all the General Body and Executive Committee Meetings as per the objectives of INUAA. The President of the ECINUAA will play an active role as the representative of the elected officers of ECINUAA, Chapter Committees' Officers, as well as the General Members of the Association.

SECTION 2: Elections of the ECINUAA

(i) All the active members of the "IQRA National University Alumni Association" will have equal right for nomination to the official positions of ECINUAA as per the attached hierarchy of INUAA given as Annexure – I. For the first-ever election, all the nominating members shall have to register themselves through the prescribed application form with the university appointed Alumni Relations Officer/Assistant Manager, Institutional Advancement and Development, and also paid the prescribed registration fee.

(ii) After completion of the tenure of two years, the responsibility of the elections will be handed over to the ECINUAA, and fresh elections should be held before the subsequent General Body Annual Meeting, e.g. Re-union or Fundraising Event. The newly elected officers will have to assume office after the completion of the first two years of tenure.

(iii) Deadline for the nominations along with the General Body Meeting (annual reunion or fundraising events) shall also be advertised in public newspapers or the INU website.

SECTION 3: INUAA Election Voting System

For voting purposes, an online/electronic voting system shall be utilised through the official website of Iqra National University, specifically via the INU Alumni Association Online Web Portal.

SECTION 4: Ex Officio Members

The Vice Chancellor shall be the Patron of INUAA, whereas Registrar, Deputy Director Administration, Controller of Examination, Director Marketing & international Linkages, Director Finance, Director CDC, and at least three senior faculty members (appointed by the Vice Chancellor), will remain the Ex Officio Members of the ECINUAA. The Vice Chancellor INU, will chair all the meetings and will supervise the strategic development of INUAA. In the absence or ailment of the Vice Chancellor, the registrar or Senior DEAN, as the case may be, will perform the chairmanship duties of the ECINUAA. (The President and the Secretary shall be elected through general elections).

SECTION 5: ECINUAA Meetings

The "IQRA National University Alumni Association" shall hold the Executive Committee Meetings at IQRA National University, Peshawar, on an yearly basis or as required, regarding all the operational matters of the Association, e.g. annual Re-union, fundraising event, opening of new chapters, etc. The Executive Committee shall review progress and implement decisions.

SECTION 6: Meeting Notifications

With the approval of the Vice Chancellors, notification of ECINUAA meetings shall be provided, or caused to be provided by the INUAA President or its General Secretary in writing (along with the Agenda of the meeting) to each member of the Committee before ten business days of the meeting, including the day of the meeting. Such "written" notification shall include communicating to members of the Committee by letter, email, WhatsApp and/or by electronic means. The notification shall include, at a minimum, the agenda, the date, the start time, and the location of the meeting.

SECTION 7: Quorum

(i) Sixty percent (60%) of the total members comprising the Committee at the time shall constitute a quorum at Committee meetings. To be included in the quorum, a Committee member must be present at the meeting. If a quorum is not attained within thirty minutes of the official start time of the meeting, the meeting is to be adjourned with no action taken by the Committee to be considered binding or officially decided. The Committee's Secretary shall note in the Committee's official records that the meeting was terminated, in accordance with this constitution, for failure to attain a quorum within the allocated thirty-minute period.

(ii) Once a quorum has been reached and the meeting begun, should the early departure of members of the Committee reduce the remaining number of members attending the meeting to less than one-quarter of the total members comprising the Committee at the time, then the quorum shall no longer exist and the meeting must be immediately adjourned with no other Association business to be discussed or acted upon. (In such a situation, Association business discussed and decided upon, if any, during the time the quorum existed shall be considered official and binding.)

SECTION 8: Voting Rights of ECINUAA

To vote, a member of the Committee must be present at the meetings of the Committee. Voting "in absentia" shall not be allowed. A majority vote as set forth in this section shall constitute an official and valid act of said membership of the Association. A decision on the floor must be approved by a "majority" vote of those Committee members present, not just those present and voting on a particular decision.

SECTION 9: Attendance

All the elected members of the Executive Committee of the Association need to attend at least 50 % of all the meetings held annually, otherwise the member would not be eligible to contest in the preceding election.

SECTION 10: Subcommittees

(i) The ECINUAA may create and terminate standing committees, temporary or subcommittees, as may be necessary to fulfil the objectives of the Association or to assist the ECINUAA in its efforts, e.g. Committees for Reunions, Fundraising Events, Investment and Expenditure Decisions, etc. Such committees are not to detract from the efforts of or duplicate the work and responsibilities of any other subcommittee or standing committee.

(ii) From time to time, the Association President, with the approval of the Vice Chancellor INU, may wish to appoint a special committee of paid/non-paid consultants whose ongoing advice and contribution to INUAA and to the university are valued by the ECINUAA. These consultants must be members of the INUAA; however, there are no other requirements for membership in this committee. Members of this committee, as is the case with any current Association member, may attend ECINUAA meetings based on the permission of the Patron and/or President, but they shall have no vote.

ARTICLE VI: Officers
