Iqra National University

Subject: Lifelong Learning Policy Regardless of Religion, Ethnicity, and Disability

		the Career Development Center (CDC).
10.	04th December 2025	On the occasion of World Disability Day, the Career Development Center (CDC) at Iqra National University, Peshawar organized a seminar featuring the CEO of the Paraplegic Centre Peshawar. The session was informative and well-received	World Disability Day Seminar on 04th December 2025
11.	03rd December 2025	The Career Development Center (CDC) at Iqra National University observed World Disability Day through a brief awareness activity involving students and faculty. The initiative highlighted inclusivity, resilience, and the importance of creating an accessible and respectful environment for all.	World Disability Day on 03rd December 2025
12.	24th, November 2026	A guest session was conducted at IQRA National University, Peshawar, featuring Sir Tuaha Ibn Jalil, a renowned Islamic scholar and a distinguished member of the Youth Club. His presence was an honour for the university, and he shared valuable wisdom and inspiring reflections with the students. Sir Tuaha also discussed his personal Islamic journey, which deeply motivated the audience. Many students expressed that his message encouraged them to strengthen their character, faith, and commitment to the right path.	Sir Tuaha Ibn Jalil, renowned Islamic scholar and member of the Youth Club, at IQRA National University, Peshawar!
13.	November 14th 2025	The Career Development Center (CDC) at Iqra National University organised an engaging activity in observance of World Tolerance Day on 16th November. The activity was displayed on the CDC office wall and involved active participation from faculty members, students, and senior university officials. The initiative aimed to promote unity, respect, and a culture of tolerance within the INU community.	World Tolerance Day on 16th November.

Registrar: _____